

BOTH ON ONE TRACK

Two Wabash Trains Collide
Near Hannibal, Mo.

SIX LIVES LOST IN THE WRECK

Both Engineers Killed—Four Italian
Emigrants Also Perish—The Flyer
Missed the Switch.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Jan. 5.—A terrible wreck occurred on the Wabash at 1:45 a. m. just east of Hannibal. The east and westbound "Cannon Ball" trains are due to meet at Aladdin, a small station this side of Hannibal, the eastbound train having the right of way. The latter was in charge of Conductor Sheehan and Engineer Charles Wilson. The train had pulled into the depot and was waiting for the westbound train to side-track and let them by. The night was extremely foggy.

Six Lives Lost.

The engineer of the westbound train missed the switch, and not being well acquainted with the locality, went crashing into the train at the depot. Al Bushart was the engineer in charge of the westbound train, and Joseph Vasconcelas the conductor. Both engines were completely wrecked and both engineers instantly killed. The trains took fire, and both smokers and baggage cars and one chair car were consumed. John Conwell, fireman of the eastbound train, was seriously injured, and the fireman of the other train cannot live. Four Italian emigrants were killed and eight other passengers injured, but none fatally so far as known.

ORGANIZED.

Both Branches of the New York Legislature Begin Their Session.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Both branches of the legislature assembled at 11 o'clock. The senate, after the usual formalities, proceeded to the election of officers, and those chosen by the democratic caucus were duly elected. Edwards, the independent, voted with the democrats. No effort at obstruction was made by the republicans. The question of seating Walker, the democrat for the Twenty-seventh senatorial district, then came up and he was declared entitled to his seat and was at once sworn in.

The assembly was quietly organized, and the officers nominated by the democratic caucus elected. Committees were then appointed by both branches to notify the governor that the legislature was organized and ready to receive any communication he had to make. He at once sent in his message and it was at once read.

Gov. Flower in his message suggests the necessity of a reapportionment of the congressional districts of the state and the taxation of the bonded indebtedness of corporations as a means of revenue.

Italy May Be Reconciled.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—An evidence that the entente cordiale between Italy and the United States is rapidly being reestablished is seen by the fact that Gov. Flower, of New York, has, in accordance with the request of Secretary Blaine, relieved Nicolli Trezzia, the Italian who is under sentence of death. Mr. Blaine's request for reprieve was made at the instance of the Marquis Imperiali, who is in charge of the Italian legation. The postponement of the execution is merely an act of courtesy to the Italian government, to give it time to satisfy itself as to the nationality of Trezzia and the justice of his conviction.

Mother and Child Burned.

CLAY CENTER, Neb., Jan. 5.—A shocking accident occurred at the residence of F. Troxell, 3 miles southeast of town, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Troxell was engaged in cleaning some clothing with benzine near the stove when the benzine caught fire and exploded, setting fire to her clothing and also that of her 3-year-old daughter. There was no assistance near, and the mother and child were burned from head to foot, both dying in the evening.

Eyes Fined Two Found.

QUINCY, Ill., Jan. 5.—Thomas Ryan, a United States army pensioner, a passenger on the Etruria, who was arrested here Saturday morning last as soon as the steamer arrived from New York, has been fined two pounds and costs. The charge upon which he was arrested was the concealment of a loaded revolver and ammunition for the weapon.

Eight Men Killed in a Fight.

MACON, Ga., Jan. 5.—Eight men were killed in a general fight at Briggs & Williams' turpentine still in Clinch county Saturday. The fight started with a quarrel between two of the men named Ed Williams and John Parker over alleged cheating in a game of cards. Parker began the shooting. Both he and Williams were killed.

BOTH INSANE.

Bad Ending of the Trip of a Husband and Wife in Search of Health.

NEWCOMENSTON, O., Jan. 5.—Jesse Moore, a popular young farmer and stockman residing just east of Newcomenston, started west a week ago in company with his young wife to buy land. Sunday he returned a raving maniac. A few hours later his wife, who unaided had brought her crazy husband from Arcadia, Ill., yielded to the strain and became insane. It is believed that with proper rest her reason will be restored. Steps are being taken to send Moore to the asylum at Columbus.

New York, Jan. 5.—It is announced that a lithographing trust has been formed, consisting of the firm of George S. Harris & Sons, of Philadelphia, Schunaber & Kittinger, the Knapp Company, F. Heppenheimers Sons, George E. Buck and the Giles Company, all of this city. The trust will be known as the American Lithograph Company, and will have an office here. The capital is said to be $12,000,000. The object of the trust is not to cut down prices, but to reduce the cost of manufacture.

Fall from a Trestle.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 5.—The 1-97 train of the Kentucky & Indiana Bridge Company while rounding a curve was derailed at Twenty-ninth street and ran off the bridge. The last car fell from the trestle, 25 feet high. Conductor Frank Mahan was crushed to death under the car, and Passom, a passenger, was injured. It is not known what caused the wreck.
